Allegiance Medical sends documents via an encrypted service. However, we may refuse to send some documents electronically and patients may be required to pick up a physical copy at the clinic. Cost of printing and admin fee of 20 cent per page is required to be paid.

Please note as email is an insecure means of communication. We have recently changed our policy for communication with patients. We are no longer accepting patient enquiries or requests via emails.

Please do not pressure our reception staff to email your test results. Your cooperation with our practice staff is crucial to apply our procedures and policies in order to protect your confidential information.

Translating Services

In any emergency, email is not the appropriate means of communication and should not be the first line of action; please contact 000 in the case of emergency.

Appointment times

At Allegiance Medical, appointments are required to maximize efficiency and workflow of the practice. Appointments are necessary to ensure you see your preferred doctor without the long wait times that can be experienced at walk in clinics. It is compulsory to have an appointment with a doctor if you are:

- Wanting to receive your results e.g., blood test results, radiology reports etc.
- Requiring a new or repeated prescription
- Needing a referral e.g., specialist, allied health etc.

Each consultation type requires different length in appointments.

- Standard consultation- 15 minutes
- Long consultation -30 minutes
- Prolonged consultation -minimum 40 minutes

Please note:

- Allegiance Medical is a mixed billing clinic. We bulk bill consultations from Monday to Friday for children under age 16 and people who have pension or Health Concession Card. Private fees applies on Saturday and Sunday to everyone including pensioners and HCC holders. Other services such as wound care, surgical procedures, and ear microsuction wax removal attract private fee for all patients.
- If your consultation exceeds your appointed time, increase in consultation fee may occur.
- If you are unable to make your appointment, please phone the practice as soon as you are able to, so that we can offer the appointment to another patient and make another appointment for you.
- Late Cancellation of appointment (within 2 hours of appointment) incurs a fee of $40.
- Surgical procedures and ear microsuction attract private fee for everyone from Monday to Sunday.

Recalls / Reminders/ Test Results

Alligiance Medical uses a recall and reminders system to inform patients they are required to have an appointment with one of our doctors or nurses.

There are a number of reasons you may receive a recall; some include:

- Test results are ready to be given
- If you require further testing
- Reminder to come for preventative health measures e.g., immunizations, health checks and screenings.

Checking the test results of your tests is a priority task for us. The test results are checked and actioned by doctors as they are downloaded into our system by pathology and radiology companies. If there is an abnormal result you will be advised to make an urgent or non-urgent appointment according to the priority of your results. If a result requires urgent action, the doctor or the nurse will make an immediate telephone contact with you to make an urgent appointment with the doctor.

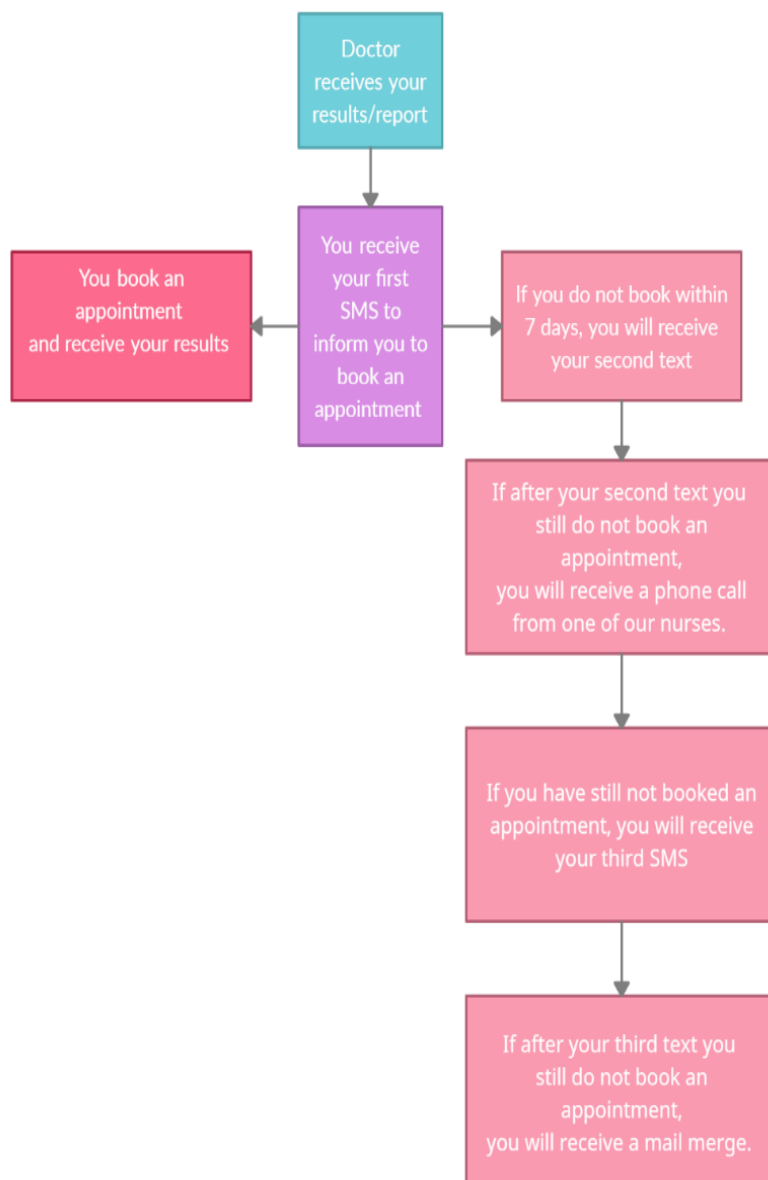

Please note, it is a strict policy of Allegiance Medical that the results or their availability are not to be discussed over the phone by the doctors or other clinical staff or emailed to you. Should you wish to discuss your results please book an appointment with your doctor.

As per Privacy Policy, our reception staff are not authorized to email your investigation results from clinic email to your email address. Please do not pressure our staff to have your results to be emailed.

We communicate with your specialists and hospitals and always send your test results as they are required.

It's your responsibility to source the results that other/previous GP's and specialists have requested/referred before your appointment if you are expecting to discuss with doctors at Allegiance Medical.

You may receive a text or a phone call from our nurses or reception staff to notify you. Please note: to receive your results, you are required to book an appointment with your GP. An example of our recall system process is as follows:

Complaints and feedbacks

We are always willing to listen your feedbacks and complaints. You can contact us on 03 85241480 for your complaints or feedback.
